The first of these is from the pen of a gifted writer, and is a tale of love and here, entitled. TWO WAYS TO WEDLOCK:

TWO WAYS TO WEDLOCK:

The scene is laid in this city during the memorable Winter of the great for. The incidents are natural and familiar, and the characters skiffelly drawn and grouped: the piot is clearly defined and well-managed—the etyle easy, graceful and flowing, and the denounces conveys a most methiclesson. It is a work of sterling acrit.

This zony will be followed by a "Tale of the South," and one of sterling interest, by an eminent Southern author, entitled or of sterling interest, by an eminent Southern author, entitled THE AVENGER!

This production is entirely American in construction, plot, incident, dialogue, seeke, bone, conclusion. It could not have been true of any other country, and possesses attractions of a peculiar nature for those "to the manner born." It is a speculify—a bosone bouche of remarkable value.

The third of this attractive erries of American stories is THE YOUNG WIFF'S DIARY!

By a DAUGHTER OF THE WEST.

It contains the whole history of woman's trials, and will be read with the deepest feeling by all classes of the community. These charming stories will be succeeded by others of a similar description, several of which are already in preparation.

All the former peculiar features of the paper, which has given its world-wide reputation, will be continued, while the several new once will give an infinite variety to its ever diversified paper. Among them are a lumber of fresh, soley, amusing, ORIGINAL COMIC STORIES.

A breachofire, no labor nor expense will be spared to mainfain the high reputation of the Home Journal, which is everywhere, both at home and abroad, anknowledged to be the most refined and olegant repertory of Literature and the Arts on this side of the sees, and the
